Crime Victims' Compensation

In the aftermath of a crime, the Oregon Crime Victims' Compensation Program works to ease the financial burden suffered by hundreds of Oregonians each year. Benefits for victims and their families include:

- mental health counseling expenses
- medical and hospital expenses
- eyeglasses, hearing aids, dentures and other medically necessary devices and expenses
- rehabilitation expenses
- loss of earnings
- funeral expenses
- loss of financial support to dependents of homicide victims
- grief counseling expenses for relatives of homicide victims
- counseling expenses for children who witness domestic violence
- counseling expenses for family members of Oregonian victims of international terrorism
